

Brewton City Schools Parent Involvement Plan

Local Educational Agency Plan

Dr. Kenneth Varner, Superintendent
Heidi Knapp, Director of Programs

Revised November 2020
Advisory Committee Approval November 9, 2020

Parental Involvement: The Brewton City School's Parent Involvement Plan was developed by teachers, principals, administrators, and parents. It describes the strategies to be utilized by the system to increase effective parental involvement and it is reviewed and revised annually.

Brewton City Schools: Parent Involvement Plan

The goal of Brewton City Schools is to actively engage, encourage, and support the participation of parents as advocates and active participants in the education of their children. Our school system believes that parents are their children's first and most important teacher. We believe the following parent involvement plan will guide our efforts to most effectively involve parents in the education of their child(ren).

1. The Brewton City School System will take the following actions to involve parents in the joint development of its district-wide parental involvement plan:
 - An annual meeting of Federal Programs will be held each year. At this meeting the district Parent Involvement Plan will be reviewed and revised as needed. Additional meetings may also be scheduled.
 - Brewton City Schools will assist the schools in informing parents of their parental involvement rights in Title I schools and "Parents Right to Know".
 - Brewton City Schools will collaborate with community agencies to provide maximum family support services to families.

2. The Brewton City School System will take the following actions to involve parents in the process of school review and improvement:
 - The Parent-Teacher Advisory Council will hold an annual meeting.
 - Under the support and guidance of the central office, each Title I school will establish a Continuous Improvement Plan committee, which includes parents.
 - Various reports provided by the Alabama State Department of Education Student Assessment Program will be distributed annually.
 - School/System Report Cards provided by the Alabama State Department of Education will be distributed annually.
 - Brewton City School System will assist the schools in informing parents of their parental involvement rights in Title I schools.

3. The Brewton City School System will provide the following necessary coordination, technical assistance, and other support to assist Title I schools in planning and implementing effective parental involvement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance.
 - The Brewton City Schools Director of Programs will facilitate the implementation of this plan, providing ongoing monitoring of the various activities and their results.
 - The Brewton City Schools Director of Programs will collaborate with the Title I Schools to provide a variety of parent education programs and training sessions, as interest and funds are available.

- School information will be provided to parents in a variety of ways which may include newsletters or on-line information through the district website or INOW.
 - The Director of Programs and the administration at the Title I schools will monitor the enrollment, attendance, and performance of any homeless children and youth who may enroll in Brewton City Schools.
 - Brewton City Schools will provide professional development activities for teachers.
 - The "Student Code of Conduct and Parent and Student Notifications" along with the School/Parent Compact will be distributed annually.
4. The Brewton City School System will coordinate and integrate parental involvement strategies with other programs.
- Title 1 Part A will collaborate with the 21st Century Community Learning Center (CCLC) program and IDEA (special education) for parent involvement strategies and training.
 - Education for Homeless Children and Youth Program ~ Home visits may be conducted to determine medical, dental, clothing, and personal hygiene needs of homeless students.
 - Brewton City Schools Technology Program will provide parents access to school information on a website. Information will be published and updated in a timely manner.

5. Brewton City Schools will conduct, with the involvement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parental involvement policy in improving the quality of its Title I schools.

Approved by:

Dr. Kenneth Varner
Superintendent

Date